United States of America,

Plaintiff,

v.

Ryan Stephens,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:20-cr-00336-KJD-DJA

Order

Defendant Ryan Stephens pled guilty to possession with intent to distribute a controlled substance – methamphetamine – and is serving a 120-month sentence. Stephens moves this court to send him copies of the federal indictment, plea agreement, plea transcripts, sentencing transcripts, the docket sheet, and statement of reasons.¹ An inmate has no constitutional right to free photocopying.² A prisoner-litigant who wants copies of electronically filed documents from the court must pay $0.50 per page to receive them.³ Because the court does not provide free copies of documents in the docket, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Stephens' motion for copies [ECF No. 49] is DENIED. Stephens should reach out to his attorney for further assistance.
